

COTTON SEED OIL TARIFF DISCUSSED

SENATOR ALDRICH EXPRESSES WILLINGNESS TO REPEAL IT.

Senator Simmons Protested—Senators
Bacon and Tillman and Many Were Willing.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—In the Senate yesterday cotton seed oil was the subject of an exchange of opinion between protectionist Republicans and tariff-for-revenue Democrats. Taunting members of the minority by stating that the cotton seed oil industry of the South had appealed to him for tariff protection, Senator Aldrich suggested to Mr. Bacon that if the Senators from Georgia and other Southern States should get together in favor of placing that product on the free list as was the case when the bill passed the House of Representatives, he thought an agreement to that effect might be reached.

This suggestion had been called forth by a statement by Mr. Bacon who said if the 25 per cent ad valorem levied on importations of cotton seed oil did not produce an income he thought it should go on the free list.

Senator Simmons of North Carolina protested against such action, declaring that he was free to say that he was not in favor of placing cotton seed oil on the free list.

Stating that the importation of cotton seed oil in 1908 was 202 gallons, worth $81, and yielding revenue of $8.28, Mr. Aldrich said the tax on that article was "for protection pure and simple."

"Any pretense," declared Mr. Tillman, rising in his place and speaking in vigorous language, "that there is protection on cotton seed oil through such a duty is a humbug. Cotton seed oil producers do not want any protection at all."

Mr. Aldrich said he had been appealed to by such producers from the South and Mr. Tillman declared that he "didn't represent such people."

Mr. Money joined in a declaration that the South did not want protection on cotton seed oil.

DOING THEIR DUTY

Scores of Gainesville Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow:

Urinary trouble, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.

Gainesville people endorse our claim.

Mrs. V. E. Spence, 201 W. Arlington street, Gainesville, Fla., says: "It would be hard to describe how I suffered from a weak and aching back. At times the pains were so intense that I could not get up or down. I was also troubled by rheumatism and different parts of my body became stiff and lame. A friend finally advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procuring a box, I began their use. I am glad to say that they lived up to representations, removing the pains and disposing of the rheumatism. I can honestly say that Doan's Kidney Pills did me more good than any medicine I had previously taken."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

GOVERNOR OF CONNECTICUT PASSES AWAY

HARTFORD, Conn., April 22.—Governor George Levens Lilley died at the executive mansion, yesterday evening after battling with acute nephritis for four weeks. There were at the bedside, Mrs. George L. Lilley, the three sons, Frederick, John and Theodore Lilley, and Mrs. John A. Lilley and the attending physicians.

As soon as the news was spread abroad the fire bells of Hartford sounded the age of the dead Governor—forty-nine—and a detachment of the first company, Governor's Fort Guards, immediately was mustered to go on duty at the executive mansion.

The funeral will be held from Trinity Church, Hartford. The body will be escorted to the State capitol prior to the funeral services and lie in state in the rotunda.

Taking the Step.

It happened while a marriage was being celebrated. The bridegroom did not have the usual happy, bashful look. Instead he seemed to be tormented by unhappiness and fidgeted about, standing first on one foot and then on the other.

So patent was his state of mental uneasiness that the "best man" deemed it expedient to elucidate the mystery. "Have you lost the ring?" he solicitedly inquired.

"No," answered the unhappy one with a rueful look; "the ring's safe enough, but, man, I've lost my enthusiasm."—London Scrap.

Mr. F. G. Fritts, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble." Foley's Orino Laxative is best for women and children, as it is mild, pleasant and effective, and is a splendid spring medicine, as it cleanses the system and clears the complexion. J. W. Very Little Change.

"It's three years since I was in this city," said a stranger in a restaurant as he was walking out after finishing his dinner. "It looks the same."

"I don't find much change," responded the waiter as he took up the nickel that was left on the table.

quashed. Each company was fined $15,000, and paid the fine.

This case went on appeal to the United States Supreme Court, where, without any division of the bench, the convictions were sustained. The point of criminal intent in such cases was treated by the Supreme Court in these words:

"There is a class of cases within which we think the one under consideration falls, where purposely doing a thing prohibited by the statute may amount to an offense." (Armour Packing Co. vs. the United States, 209 U. S. at page 85.)

Morris, Armour, Swift and Cudahy are all offenders. The acts for which Wickersham gives immunity were committed, in many instances, since the decision of the above-mentioned case by the Supreme Court. The packing companies concealed evidence of their transactions by their practice of keeping a secret as well as a public set of books.

"If Wickersham's action is carrying out the Roosevelt policies," declared a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission who was an admirer of Roosevelt, "deliver me from having them further carried out."

Another member of the Interstate Commerce Commission said: "It is the moral effect of this act of the Attorney-General which is most to be deplored. With an example of this kind before them it is not to be expected that prosecuting attorneys throughout the country are going to display much zeal in the preparation of inauguration of new cases. The arm of the Chicago prosecuting official, raised to do his duty, has been struck down, not by the common enemy, but by his own chief—by the new Attorney-General of the United States.

"Let no one suppose that the secret rebate has been wiped out. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are paid every month to favored shippers under various deceitful guises. The implied promise of immunity from the penal sections of the Hepburn act will be the signal for the secret rebate to renew its youthful flourish."

SURE CATARRH CURE
